Dear Aunt Cathy,
It's the last week of school here in Milan, and I'm very excited. I've got many things to do. First, my friends and I are going to the shopping centre to look for a present for our literature teacher, Mr Conte. Then, we're going to the market to buy food for our class party. It's this evening. I'm going to wear my new white dress and red jacket to the party. Mum bought the clothes for me two days ago. I must get ready for my trip to visit you. How is the weather in London now? Is it hotter or colder than in Italy? Mum says that it always rains there. What type of clothes do I need? Your letter arrived yesterday. To answer your questions, I want to see Buckingham Palace, but I don't want to go to a cricket game. I can't wait to have some delicious fish and chips. I'm also planning to buy the newest CDs. I'm arriving at 4.00 next Saturday. See you at the airport!
Love,
Laura

VEGETABLES AND CLOTHES

John Lewis is a big store on Oxford Street in London. It has got men's clothes. John Lewis has got an unusual way to help its clients choose their new shirts, jeans, jackets and trousers. The store owners say that vegetables can help men shop for clothes and look attractive!

At the store, they divide men into four different types. Each type has got a different shape of a vegetable: a potato, a green bean, an aubergine or a parsnip. For example, some men have got a potato shape. They are short and fat. They have got short arms and legs. Some men are long and thin. They have got a green bean body.

Dark colours are good for the potato shape and light colours are good for the bean shape. At this shop, men think about their shape, not their size. They want comfortable clothes and to look good too.

RECYCLE AND SAVE ENERGY

Every week, the average family throws four glass bottles, thirteen cans, three plastic bottles and five kilograms of paper in their rubbish bins! In England and Wales, there is more than 100 million tons of rubbish just from people's homes. England recycles about 14% of its litter and is going to increase this to 25% between 2005 and 2010.

5 A hi-tech recycling factory opened in Norfolk in 2004. The factory, called NEWS (Norfolk Environment Waste Services), is the only one in England. It collects litter from all over the country. First, the factory sorts the litter and then sends it to different places for recycling.

Recycling is important. It saves energy and helps the environment.

RIVER THAMES TOUR

Many tourists take a boat tour on the River Thames in London because it's a great way to see the city. The boats are big and comfortable. There are restaurants on the boats. A tour guide tells the tourists stories about the places they see from the boats.

Every day, the boats leave from one of the following places: Westminster Pier, Waterloo Pier, Tower Pier and Greenwich Pier. The boats sail every day of the year except for one, Christmas Day.

A short trip usually takes 30 minutes, but the full trip is over two and a half hours. As you sail, you see many famous places. From Westminster Pier, you can see the Houses of Parliament and from the Tower Pier, you can see the Tower of London.

Buy a ticket, and spend the day sailing on the River Thames. You can leave the boat at each stop and walk around, then get back on and sail to the next place. It's a fun and different way to see the city!
